Niko has been constantly rejecting Vin's affectionate passes and repeatedly refuting his claims that he was her future husband and that they were destined to be together. She'd decide a long time ago that she would never again fall for the lies of a man with a handsome face. And to be honest Vincenzo Fabrizio was an unbelievable gorgeous hunk of man with a mouth-watering body to match. For her that meant one thing that he was a danger to her heart which she'd been working hard to protect. Unfortunately for Niko, Vin was slowly chipping away at the frozen block of ice she placed around her heart. It was getting more difficult by the moment for Niko to resist Vin and she was starting to feel as if she no longer wanted to resist. When the woman assigned to do report of his off duty injury turns out to be a woman from his past who is majorly lusting for him. The green eyed monster of jealousy rears its ugly head, along with a visit for the blanket of insecurities. Vin has been trying for weeks to convince Niko that they were meet for each other he knew this from the moment he'd heard her voice over the phone. Unfortunately for him Niko was not making it easy for them to be together.

And just when he's beginning to think that she'd never succumb to his advances things start to get interesting between the two of them.

Then in a wicked turn of events everything turns right around and gets all complicated.

However, once Niko and Vin decide to stake their claim on each other things get a bit crazy, a whole lot of sexy wild and a little kinky all while they stubbornly battle the obstacles standing in their way. So don't miss their electrifying story as they battle their feelings, each other and anyone foolish enough to stand between them and happiness.
