A storm is brewing in Florida, involving the Romanian secret police, Castro's hardmen and the U.S. Mob. Key West is Mack Bolan's target of operations, where a stricken Romanian freighter holds the key to the mission. Sixty million dollars in gold is aboard the vessel, on its way to help Romanian exiles in Cuba. The Mafia is sending soldiers to Key West for a piece of the action. And Bolan's head is the bargaining chip in a gang's war for survival. Dark clouds are gathering in the sunshine state, and the Executioner is the only ray of hope for the innocent.
