#1 Amazon Bestselling Author! “California author Nathan Bay makes an impressive debut with KING OF THE SEA” —Grady Harp, Amazon Top 100 Reviewer Plunge into the icy dark waters of the San Francisco bay with this gay erotic tale of murder, mutiny, and mermen. Carlos Santiago is a man on the edge of sanity. After battling cancer, he's developed an obsession with death, fearful that it's lurking behind every shadow, waiting to steal his last breath. Then a heart-pounding encounter with a mysterious merman turns his world upside down and gives him new hope for the future. But escaping his vindictive former boyfriend, Dr. Tyson Thorne, won't be so easy. When Carlos discovers shocking medical experiments are taking place behind his back, he embarks on a race against time to unlock the mystery of the doctor's secrets before he gets caught.

With danger threatening him at every turn, can Carlos escape the hands of death a second time? And can he trust his new merman love interest when everyone around him seems to be hiding a dark secret?
