Princess Tania Lewis lost her mother at age two. While the mystery of what happened to her mother has plagued her her whole life, Tania has learned to cope with life in the Kingdom of Arkangia. However, when one day the safety of the kingdom and the simplicity of Tania's world is challenged by the enemy, Tania and her younger brother must embark on a journey to save their family and people. Along the way, not only will they find unlikely allies and unexpected friends, but they will also have to deal with betrayal and traitors from among their own. Join Tania and Jackson as they strive to fight for what matters to them most and discover who they truly are.
