Omar Sinclair is a black billionaire alpha male with a taste for voluptuous white women and a burning ambition fueled by racial resentment. Natasha is white, curvy, and married.

Omar makes Natasha a tempting proposition, one that will solve her many money problems: sleep with him for more money than Natasha has ever seen while her racist white husband Angus watches.

What will Natasha do? Will she humiliate her husband by sleeping with a big black man for the first time? Will she discover she has a taste for both dark meat and the finer things in life? This full-length erotic novel contains BMWW interracial themes, cuckold humiliation, voyeurism, race play with strong racial language, and light BDSM.
