Everywhere you look, someone is trying to make you afraid: Be afraid of the terrorists; fear the liberals; watch out for the fundamentalists! Beware of strangers, with their pigment, odd customs, strange gods. Fear the boogie man, fear the devil, fear the abductor, fear even the Telatubby. Beware of infectious diseases, random accidents, incoming comets. Be afraid! Why? Why is everyone trying to make you afraid. They have an agenda, they need your help, and they enlist you through fear. They use fear to leverage you, pushing your buttons to join the herd. IT CAN STOP! Today. You can break free from the culture of fear! (from book jacket).
