Over the years, Constance Leidl and Charlie Meiklejohn have investigated a wide variety of murder and arson cases. This collection assembles for the first time the shorter cases of the detecting duo, including: "With Thimbles, with Forks, and Hope, " their first case ever; the harrowing account of an arsonist out for revenge, "Torch Song, " which has never been published before; and "All for One, " also published first in this volume - a bittersweet tale of murderous family relations. Together with "Sister Alice" and "The Gorgon Field, " these stories comprise a full house of fantastic fiction.
