Three authors come together for one big adventure in storytelling... Mr. Dog receives a mysterious letter inviting him to a little house in the woods to "see what there is to see"—but an unsavoury trio aim to capture Mr. Dog and force him to do their washing up and to care for their house! How will Mr. Dog escape? In the land of the Little People, Little Elf refuses to smile. Dr. Toddle's charge, Tiny Obin, wants desperately to be Little Elf's friend, but first he must break down the barriers between the small elf and his happiness. Ragbud the elf is late for a party at the Warren! Along the way, he encounters the rich (and rather rude) gnome named Trampin, and the two are thrown into a series of misadventures that will draw them together in friendship. Last, Brenda Bear explores the world around her with her family—Duckling, Froggy, and the shiny red engine Puff. From snowball fights to mysterious gifts from a wizard boarder, the group supports one another and has tons of fun along the way!
