This is a standalone After yet another failed relationship Blyss is determined to focus on making herself happy. Like her dad always tells her, 'happiness is within.' Maybe that's why all of her relationships fail, she's looking for happiness in a man. After her boyfriend Kofi breaks her heart it makes her realize she needs to focus on herself. If love is meant for her than it would have to find her. Menace has just ended a messy long term relationship and isn't looking for love. He hates drama and when him and Blyss cross paths she's causing hella drama.

But for some reason he's still drawn to her. When he finds out that she has been helping his family he knows there's more to her than just good looks and attitude. Menace and Blyss aren't looking for love but their chemistry is undeniable. Things are just easy for them, but it wouldn't be a hood love without drama. When enemies come for them will they be able to last? Blyss won't let Menace be drawn into her mess. She'd rather leave him then put him in danger. But, Menace isn't an easy man to get rid of. Will Blyss really be his bing or his curse?
