Life is not always what you dreamt it to be... Camona grew up in a world where for the right price you could have anything you wanted. She made a promise and would do anything to keep it; even if it meant sending her parents to jail for a very long time. Justus was stuck between two worlds; the world her parents wanted her to have and the world she longed to be in. When Casey took Justus for a drive one day after school, he opened up a whole new life for her. Tragedy strikes making her face a world she was sheltered from, all alone. All Devil wanted was to be loved and to have a family of his own. When Keisha told him she was pregnant, he thought he would finally have his own. After being released from a six month stay in the county jail, he was eager to be with his new family. As it has happened his whole life, that too was taken from him by his best friend. Get to know each character as they try and find the life they so desperately want. Will Camona keep her promise? Which life will Justus choose? Will Devil finally have his own? It all goes down in the Triple Six. Can you survive?
