"There is nothing wrong with having a plan. Just keep it simple." There was nothing simple about the plan Cain had proposed to Lilia Carriere. With the Christmas holiday baring down on her. She has to produce a boyfriend or end up her Mother's pet project list for the year. Beverly Carriere had decided her daughter needed to start on the marriage path. Doctor Cain Farrow just need a few days in Meadow Memorial's research lab. Unfortunately the hospital toughest administrator's approval was needed. Hardass Carriere ran the hospital with her take charge attitude and willingness to stand up to any doctor. But Cain had something she needed. So he struck a deal. "I pretend to be the perfect boyfriend for one dinner and you approve my extra lab time. That way we all win." Little did he know that the founding member of Blue Grove's Virgins Club was the girl he never knew he wanted.
