"I turned to look back at the house and was shocked to see the white of a face at one of the windows, and it was staring right at me." "Witherstone is a really outstanding read - good old-fashioned storytelling, in the very best sense; engaging and gripping as only the most skilfull writing can be." Gordon Askew, Education Advisor, UK. Witherstone is the story of a girl trying to get her family back. In the English village of Witherstone, Hephzibah Creswell discovers that she and her family have a mysterious and deadly enemy. When the Plague sweeps through the village, Hephzibah acts to try to save her sister's lifem but her actions unleash devastating consequences for her whole family. A sinister and gripping tale of mysterious enemies with murderous intentions, Witherstone is situated in the years following the English Civil Wars in a society riddled with social inequality, religious turmoil and fears of witchcraft. The first book in a trilogy, Witherstone is also available for Kindle and iPad on www.amazon.co.uk.

co.uk. Witherstone is crossover fiction, enthralling younger and older readers alike. The second book in the series, The Hunt Begins, is due out Summer 2012. "Unputdownable ... a gripping read from start to finish."
