Adi and Johnny want their last year in High School to be the best year of their lives. Each have their heart set on different things. They feel happy and lost in the bliss of student life, and it's their friendship that keeps their insane worlds from falling apart.

While Adi takes pride in the fact that he is the football captain, Johnny keeps pulling his legs to keep him grounded. Their quest for the perfect year makes them laugh, cry and cherish each and every moment that makes student life so unforgettable.
