Brisbane Manor hides within its walls a secret. A secret so terrifying it will change the lives of all that enter... forever. The beautiful Brita, unaware of the manor's history, hides a secret of her own. Sent to work as housemaid for the brothers of Brisbane, she considers this place a safe haven. No longer will she have to defend her every move. No longer will she have to bear the accusing glares. She is finally away from a mother who cast her out... away from townspeople who ridicule and abuse her. But soon she will discover that what she believed was a gift from God has nothing to do with anything Godly. Ashford, rich and powerful, one of London's elite, uses his cunning and dark, handsome looks to manipulate those around him, easily gaining anything he desires... and what he desires, at times, is more deadly than they realize. Harmon, who at one time partook in Ashford's evil endeavors, now fights the conflict within. After a horrible accident, he turned against what he is, what Ashford made him. Now, he is on a quest to protect Brita from meeting the same fate, even if it brings his existence to an end.
